Final Showdowns Beckon as Inanda Hoops Classic Challenge Heats Up

The race for silverware intensified on Day Three of the Inanda Hoops Classic Challenge, as schools turned up the intensity in their pursuit of championship glory. With semi-finals delivering closely fought contests, impressive victories and plenty of competitive spirit, the tournament took another significant step towards its grand finale.

The Under-12, Under-15 and Under-18 divisions all produced their finalists, while other schools continued to battle for the best possible finishing positions ahead of Sunday's decisive fixtures.

UNDER-12: PRIDWIN AND THE RIDGE SET UP TITLE CLASH

The Under-12 division delivered its share of drama as the round-robin stage gave way to the semi-finals and placement battles.

Pridwin Preparatory School emerged victorious in a tense semi-final against Michael Mount Waldorf School, securing a narrow 21-19 win to book their place in the final. The Ridge, meanwhile, put together a strong performance to beat St Peter's Boys Preparatory School 31-14 and earn a shot at the title.

The two winners will now go head-to-head in Sunday's final, scheduled for 24 October, while Michael Mount Waldorf and St Peter's Boys Preparatory will fight for third place.

Placement matches will take place as the teams will have another opportunity to finish their campaigns strongly.

UNDER-15: SAHETI AND ST JOHN'S MARCH INTO THE FINAL

Saheti School took an important step towards the Under-15 crown with a 37-31 semi-final victory over KES. Their reward is a place in Sunday's final, where they will face a determined St John's side.

Hilton College will have an opportunity to bounce back when they face KES in the third-place playoff. Meanwhile, the remaining schools will contest placement matches for positions five through 20, ensuring another full day of competition.

UNDER-18: KES AND ST BENEDICT'S BOOK CHAMPIONSHIP PLACES

KES continued their push for Under-18 honours with a 56-40 win over St David's Marist Inanda, earning a place in the final after an assured semi-final performance.

St Benedict's College will join them in the title showdown after defeating St Stithians 42-33. The victory sets up a final between two schools eager to cap their tournament campaigns with championship success.

St David's Marist Inanda and St Stithians will now turn their attention to the bronze-medal playoff, while the other teams prepare for their remaining placement encounters, with positions five through 20 still to be decided.
